

The contractor covenants to provide notice of any contracts in existence prior to the execution and during the term of this contract which contracts are for the provision of the contractor's services to foreign intelligence and security forces of a foreign government. The contractor will provide upon request intelligence information concerning requests for intelligence-related techniques, equipment or similar services relative to such contracts.